The Institute

The NASPA Multicultural Institute is intentionally designed for student affairs practitioners and administrators to further develop their own knowledge and skills as effective multicultural educators.

The NASPA Multicultural Institute will provide an interactive forum combining thought-provoking keynote speakers, challenging educational sessions, and opportunities for resource and idea sharing between multicultural educators across the academy including academic affairs. Institute participants will engage in a multitude of topics related to multiculturalism, intercultural competency, cross-culturalism and social justice by focusing on race and ethnicity; sexual orientation; sex, gender, and gender identity; ability, nationality; religion and spirituality; and socioeconomic class.

Institute Audience

- Student affairs and academic affairs professionals at every level, including senior student affairs officers
- Multicultural services professionals, including directors and associate/assistant directors
- Undergraduate and graduate faculty
- Graduate students

Hotel Information

All Institute activities will take place at the Sheraton Atlanta Hotel located in the heart of downtown Atlanta, just minutes from Turner Field, Phillips Arena, and the Buckhead entertainment district.
